

Orange Blossom Dance Festival

UCWDC and Other Country Contest Rules

General Rules

Everyone must always abide by the Orange Blossom Code of Conduct

Your wristband must be worn at all times.

Seating is open. You may not “hold” seats by laying your stuff there. Please do not stand in a way that blocks the view of others seated behind you.

Orange Blossom Dance Festival has a no-refund policy.

Solicitation or the sale of any product or service within the event areas requires payment of a vendor fee or prior arrangements with the event directors.

Contest Rules

Follow all contest rules. If you are unsure, please ask.

All competitors will purchase at least a Standard/Competitor Weekend Pass to compete.

Register and pay the contest entry fee by the cut-off deadlines.

Pick up your registration and competitor number prior to your scheduled contest.

Check in with the competitor coordinators in the staging area at least 15 minutes prior to start of competition.

Entering a contest indicates consent to unrestricted use of your name and likeness in the photos and videos to appear in future promotions on the internet.

Scores are available through the website after the last day of the event.

Competition Divisions

- UCWDC Contests – ProAm, Couples, Line & Teams

Please refer to the UCWDC website to ascertain which divisions are offered. Orange Blossom will accept any and all UCWDC divisions.

<https://ucwdc.org/rules/>

You can find all applicable divisions and rules. These divisions will qualify you for the UCWDC World Championships.

- Blossom Contests – ProAm and Couples only

Blossom is the equivalent of UCWDC without requiring a hat or boots. You can compete at the same levels under the Blossom rules, which are the same as UCWDC, except without hats and boots. These divisions do NOT qualify you for the UCWDC World Championships.